The above defendants were arrested June 25 and arraigned before me June 26, 1916, charged with violating the first section of an ordinance of said city entitled, "An Ordinance to Regulate Parades, Processions, Meetings and the Like, through, in and upon the public streets, highways, and places of the City of Plainfield," approved October 4th, 1915, by not having a permit from the Mayor and refusing to halt the meeting when requested by the officer. The defendants' counsel asked for an adjournment until July 6, 1916, which was granted, and the defendants were released under bonds of Two Hundred Dollars for their appearance for trial on July 6, 1916. Said defendants appeared before me July 6, 1916 and at the request of their counsel George W. V. Moy, asked for a further adjournment until July 13, 1916, which was granted. On July 13th, said defendants appeared before me for trial. George W. V. Moy, on behalf of the defendants waived reading of the complaint, and made a motion to put in the minutes of the Common Council, relating to the passage of the ordinance in which the complaint was made, for the purpose of showing that the ordinance was not properly adopted according to law. Walter L. Hetfield, Jr. representing the City objected on the grounds that it was a matter of defence and that it was not the proper time to make such a motion. Mr. Hetfield was sustained and the motion of attorney for defendants was over-ruled. The City then produced the following witnesses, each being sworn in their regular order. George Muir stated that on June 25, the defendants were holding a street meeting at the corner of Madison Avenue and West Front Street, at five or ten minutes to Eight, and that he asked them if they had a permit from the Mayor and that they refused to answer him. He then told them to stop the meeting at once. They refused and he placed them under arrest. John Guinee was then sworn. He stated that he was present when these people were conducting a street meeting and that he heard the officer request them to stop and also seen that they refused and that the officer placed them under arrest. Leighton Calkins was then sworn on behalf of the City and stated that no permit was granted to the defendants or their society "The Pillar of Fire" to conduct any street meeting on the public streets of the City of Plainfield. William Gault a witness on behalf of the City was then sworn and stated that he had seen the officer approach these people and request them to stop. That they were praying in the street and that he also saw the officer place them under arrest.

Mary H. Lunham was then sworn. The Counsel for the defendants and the Assistant Corporation Counsel, Mr. Hatfield, agreed to the minutes of the meeting being admitted as evidence. The City then rested its case. George H. V. Moy, on behalf of the defendants then rested his case and made a motion to the Court, to dismiss the complaint on the grounds that the City Charter of the City of Plainfield and the City Ordinance was illegal, which motion was over-ruled, and the defendants were adjudged guilty of violating the City Ordinance and were then sentenced to be confined to the County Jail for a period of seven days and to pay a fine of Twenty Dollars ^{each}, and that in default of payment of said fine, that they be confined to the County Jail for a further period of ten days, unless the fine be sooner paid.
